

The secrecy surrounding this issue is an outrage. Please allow more time for public comment, and please establish forums at which other people than those in the industry can be heard.